Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be applied to Jan Talley; and,

Whereas, Jan started her career with the Department of Revenue as a fuel tax auditor, was promoted to Audit Manager, Regional Manager, and served as the Interim Business Tax Director, Audit Specialist, and finished her career as the Director of Business Tax; and,

Whereas, Jan's loyalty and dedication to state government over the past 35 years is an inspiration to all those working in public service. Her positive attitude, calm and friendly demeanor, leadership, knowledge, and experience have influenced both coworkers and the public over these many years and created integrity and trust within the Department of Revenue; and,

Whereas, Jan has represented the Department and South Dakota during many legislative sessions and at regional and national meetings in a professional manner; and,

Whereas, Jan will spend her retirement working on her golf game, traveling, and spending time with family; and,

Whereas, On August 31, 2012, Jan will retire from the Department of Revenue and Regulation with over 35 years of service; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 31, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
